

Texans Homeschool Baseball

Code of Conduct

All coaches, players, and parents must keep in mind our Statement of Faith, and that our goal is to honor God through baseball with our thoughts, words, and actions. We want to do everything in our power to represent God and His Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, well. This includes, but is not limited to, the following code of conduct when participating in or attending any Texans Baseball function:

Do Your Work Heartily As For the Lord

(this is for coaches, players, parents, and guests!)

- Hustle, work hard, have fun!
 - Encourage your teammates.
 - Be respectful of yourself, your team, your opponents, and the umpires.
 - Overcome adversity and demonstrate self-control.
 - Strive for excellence and demonstrate grace in failure.
 - Demonstrate a teachable spirit and develop a thankful heart.
- Players are expected to: Respect all umpire calls and all coaches' decisions and remain in the dugout or in the bench area during games unless there is an emergency or you receive permission from one of the coaches to leave.
 - Parents are expected to: Respect all umpire calls and all coaches' decisions; allow the coaches to coach the game and the players to play the game without interference and save all comments or questions for the coaches and players for the day after the game.

Conduct that will NOT be tolerated

- No crude, profane or vulgar language
- No public displays of affection while in Texans uniform or at Texans sanctioned events (unless married)
- No throwing of equipment in a display of anger or frustration
- No illegal activities at any time
- No alcohol or illegal substances while in Texans uniform or at any Texans event
- No intoxicated or disorderly behavior while in Texans uniform or at any Texans event
- No use of tobacco or nicotine products including e-cigarettes or vapes while in Texans uniform or at Texans event
- No viewing of pornography while in Texans uniform or at a Texans event

CONSEQUENCES for Conduct Violations Include

Some form of extra physical exercise (running, push-ups, etc.)
Removal from a game or practice in whole or in part
Removal from the competition site

Suspended from playing in upcoming games
Dismissal from the Texans team or coaching staff

These policies regarding character and conduct on the Texans baseball team have been established for your protection, well-being, character development, and to support our Statement of Faith to glorify God through baseball. In light of these principles, the intent is to mentor, educate and grow our players into Godly men. The final decision regarding any issues resides with the coaching staff and the Texans Leadership Committee. The decisions made by the coach and Leadership Committee are final. If you are dismissed from the team for a Code of Conduct violation, you will be responsible for any additional costs, and NO refunds will be given.
